“RESTORED: A Self-Paced Grief Workbook for Your Journey from Loss to Life”

“I highly recommend this book to anyone that has experienced the loss of a loved one. It has offered me time to reflect on my own grief journey for which I am grateful.”

-Mary Wall, RNC, President of the Board for Kauai Hospice

MARILYN INTERVIEW REVIEWS

"Marilyn did a wonderful job speaking to our widows group. She is sensitive and articulate. She connected very personally with our audience. We look forward to inviting her back!"

-Dorina Lazo Gilmore-Young, Author and Speaker

"I recently had Marilyn on as my guest for a video about anxiety. I specifically chose her because of her Therapy background. She is a natural! Her tenderness towards delicate topics is one of the most powerful tools in her proverbial tool belt. She's able to focus on a certain subject and navigate through many different avenues to find the destination both timely and seamlessly. She also has experience with editing, which helps her mental flow through the interviewing process. I highly recommend Marilyn if you're looking for someone kind, personable, and knowledgeable."

-Brittany Paige, President Art Abide

"Marilyn came to our counseling course and taught on self-care. We learned about how to use all our senses and stay present and grounded. She used several props to make the teaching come alive, and in order to communicate with every learning style. Her communication is very clear and captivating, and shows care for the individual."

-Åsa Fisher, YWAM Counseling School Leader

"Having known Marilyn for several years, I can say this: she creates a "safe harbor" for her listeners with both love and compassion, which is evident throughout her communication with her audience. Secondly, Marilyn's knowledge and expertise in counseling gives credibility to the wisdom she shares with others. Marilyn is truly a gift!"

-Carol Murphy, Former Church Counseling Center Manager
